FAQ's

Q: What can I expect from a Theme Park Review Trip?

A: Expect to have a great time with new and old friends, riding tons of great roller coasters, visiting some amazing parks, and even getting some nice perks like ERT, backstage tours, etc. It also means "concierge" type service from help with all of your travel arrangements, luggage tags, drinks/snacks, private message board to discuss details, and much more!

Q: How do we meet up at the start of the Trip?

A: This will all be discussed further once signups are complete. Usually, you just get to the airport and we take care of it from there. Again, all details will be given on the private trip board and the printed color trip guide. We will also let everyone know our flight plans and you are welcome to fly over with us. No one has ever not found us to start the tour!

Q: What kind of hotels will we stay at?

A: Theme Park Review makes the best attempt to stay at "nice" hotels. Meaning interior corridors, hotels with facilities (food, convenience stores, etc.) within walking distance, hotels with a bar or restaurant, etc. Scandinavia is very expensive and some nights we may stay at just average tourist hotels to make up for staying other nights at fabulous hotels within walking distance to parks!

Q: What are "park perks?"

A: The most popular park perk is "ERT/ERS" or "Exclusive Ride Time/Session." The park will allow our group to arrive early or extend our stay outside of the public park hours so we can ride coasters all by ourselves! We may also get backstage tours or photo tours in areas not accessible by the general public.

Q: How many people will be on this trip?

A: Theme Park Review likes to keep our trips as small as possible. There may be as few as 20 people on a tour, and NEVER more than 100. We have seen what happens when a tour books 250 – 300 people. Lines are longer during ERT than during the normal operating day! We do not want that to happen on a TPR tour. We would like this trip to be limited to 100 participants.

Q: What kind of meals can I expect?

A: We will always try to stay at hotels that include breakfast. On most days (except for when we have to leave super early) breakfast will be included. On as many days as possible, we will try to include a meal at a park. That meal may either be a set time for the entire group or you may receive a meal coupon to eat on your own.

Q: Do I need to be a member of Theme Park Review or Club TPR to go on a trip?

A: No. You do not need to be a member to go on a trip, however, once you register, we will create a TPR Forum screen name for you, if you do not have one already. You will have access to the trip forum which will give you up-to-date information. Club TPR Members get priority placement on trips and a discount. Join today at www.clubtpr.com

Q: I am under 18 years old. Can I still go on a trip?

A: If you are 16 or 17, you can still go on the trip, BUT your parents must agree to sign a medical release form and a waiver and you must be "approved" by TPR. If you are under 16 years old, you need to be accompanied by a responsible adult.

Q: What if English isn't my first language? Is it only Americans on the trips?

A: Our TPR Trips always have been very diverse, with participants from Asia, Europe, South America, Australia, and of course North America. Our trips are conducted in English, but we do our best to make sure that if English is not your first language you understand what we are saying and feel welcome. On many trips our Europeans will outnumber the Americans!

Q: How do I fly into Copenhagen and out of Helsinki? Will this cost me more?

A: GOOD QUESTION! This kind of trip is often referred to as a 'dog leg' or 'multi-city' journey, most of the time it is not much more money than flying round trip. If you find an amazing roundtrip ticket to Copenhagen or Helsinki, consider buying a one way ticket between the two and that may make it even cheaper! For example, airfare from Los Angeles to Copenhagen and Helsinki back to Los Angeles is currently $1250. New York to Copenhagen and Helsinki back to New York is currently $850. These are very good prices!

Terms and Conditions

Your trip fee covers the cost of the following: all transportation detailed in the trip flyer, overnight accommodations, park entrances, all relevant taxes, road tolls, gas, parking, drivers, etc. It does not include any meals apart from those advertised in the itinerary. Theme Park Review will do its best to arrange park perks, but they cannot be guaranteed.

Participants aged 15 and under as of June 13, 2014 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Participants aged 16 – 17 will be allowed to travel on their own but must have a signed medical release and waiver from their parent or guardian as well as be personally approved by Theme Park Review.

Note that the pace of the trip will be fairly rigorous, mornings as early as 6am, nights as late as midnight. This will NOT be the case EVERY day, but do be prepared. All hotels will have full service restaurants and bars.

Due to fluctuating fuel prices as well as currency exchange rates, it may become necessary to charge a small fuel/currency supplement if needed. This will be determined six weeks prior to the start of the trip.

Theme Park Review cannot be held responsible for anyone that misses the start of the trip due to flight delays or any other travel issues. Everyone should plan to arrive in ample time for the start of the tour. Trip participants are also responsible for arriving on time to all scheduled bus/train/walking departures. The trip WILL depart on time and will not wait for latecomers. If you are late for any meet up, you will be responsible to meet up with the tour at your cost. Ask anyone from previous TPR Trips, if you are 1 minute late WE WILL ALREADY BE GONE! This is how we can make every attempt to stay on schedule. We strongly recommend that you take out your own insurance policy to cover health, third party liability and trip cancellation costs.

The payment of registration fees by, for, or on behalf of participants releases and holds harmless Theme Park Review and its representatives from any and all liabilities related to those activities.

We reserve the right to alter the itinerary for reasons such as operational problems, acts of war, etc. We will try to notify you prior to departure where possible or by announcements during the trip. We will try to offer suitable alternatives where possible. We cannot be held responsible if certain rides or coasters are not open for the trip. If you wish to cancel your place on the trip, then we must receive notice at least 4 weeks prior to departure. Any trip costs incurred on your behalf will be retained up to the value of the deposit. If cancellation notification is received less than 4 weeks prior to departure, any trip costs incurred on your behalf may be retained from your trip payment, and you may be asked to reimburse us if costs incurred exceed what you have paid. Theme Park Review reserves the right to cancel the trip for any reason. In the event of a cancellation any monies paid to Theme Park Review will be refunded.

All participants must be in possession of a full passport that is not due to expire for at least six months after your return to your country of residence. We cannot be held responsible for any problems arising due to insufficient travel documentation. Theme Park Review cannot be deemed liable in respect of any loss, damage, or changes caused by force majeure. This covers such events as floods, strikes, fire, warfare, terrorism, or similar actions beyond our control.

Theme Park Review acts only as an agent for the various independent suppliers that provide hotel accommodations, transportation, sightseeing, amusement parks, or other services connected with this tour. Such services are subject to the terms and conditions of those suppliers. Theme Park Review accepts no liability whatsoever for any injury, damage, loss, accident, delay, or other incident which may be caused by the negligence, defect, default or any company or person in performing these services. Responsibility is not accepted for losses, injury, damages or expenses of any kind due to sickness, weather, strikes, hostilities, wars, terrorist acts, acts of nature, local laws or other such causes. All services and accommodations are subject to the laws and regulations of the country in which they are provided. Theme Park Review is not responsible for any baggage or personal effects of any individual participating in the tour. Individual Travelers are responsible for purchasing a travel insurance policy, if desired, that will cover some of the expenses associated with the loss of luggage or personal effects.

Theme Park Review reserves the right to refuse service to anyone at anytime at our own discretion.
