Total Cost:

Australia - $2750 Per Person

The total cost of the trip includes everything listed above. Airfare to get to/from the starting and ending points is NOT included. Total cost amount is based on double occupancy. If you are attending the trip on your own, you will be paired with another trip participant. If you wish to room on your own, please inquire about the additional single supplement fee.

FLIGHTS – For those flying from North America or Europe we HIGHLY recommend planning to come in a day early to help with jetlag and allow for any delays. Once signups are complete we will also look into a group flight option from LAX – SYD for those interested. We will also coordinate an early arrival hotel room and rate.

FAQ's

Q: What can I expect from a Theme Park Review Trip?

A: Expect to have a great time with new and old friends, riding tons of great roller coasters, visiting some amazing parks, and even getting some nice perks like ERT, backstage tours, etc. It also means "concierge" type service from help with all of your travel arrangements, luggage tags, drinks/snacks, private message board to discuss details, and much more!

Q: How do we meet up at the start of the Trip?

A: This will all be discussed further once signups are complete. Most likely you will be responsible for getting to a nearby SYD Airport Hotel. Again, all details will be given on the private trip board and the printed color trip guide.

Q: What kind of hotels will we stay at?

A: Theme Park Review makes the best attempt to stay at "nice" hotels. Meaning interior corridors, hotels with facilities (food, convenience stores, etc.) within walking distance, hotels with a bar or restaurant, etc. If possible, we try to book hotels close to parks to limit the amount of driving in the morning.

Q: What are "park perks?"

A: The most popular park perk is "ERT/ERS" or "Exclusive Ride Time/Session." The park will allow our group to arrive early or extend our stay outside of the public park hours so we can ride coasters all by ourselves! We may also get backstage tours or photo tours in areas not accessible by the general public. This will not be as prevalent on this trip as on other trips due to the Australians not really understanding this concept; but we will do our best to get you some cool perks!

Q: How many people will be on this trip?

A: Theme Park Review likes to keep our trips as small as possible. There may be as few as 30 people on a tour, and NEVER more than 100. We have seen what happens when a tour books 250 – 300 people. Lines are longer during ERT than during the normal operating day! We do not want that to happen on a TPR tour. This trip will be limited to around 40 people.

Q: What kind of meals can I expect?

A: We will always try to stay at hotels that include breakfast. On most days (if not all) breakfast will be included. There will also be a meal included at a park. That meal may either be a set time for the entire group or you may receive a meal coupon to eat on your own. Sometimes we also have group meals at an offsite or hotel restaurant as well.

Q: Do I need to be a member of Theme Park Review to go on a trip?

A: No. You do not need to be a member to go on a trip, however, once you register, we will create a TPR Forum screen name for you, if you do not have one already. You will have access to the trip forum which will give you up-to-date information.

Q: I am under 18 years old. Can I still go on a trip?

A: If you are 16 or 17, you can still go on the trip, BUT your parents must agree to sign a medical release form and a waiver and you must be "approved" by TPR. If you are under 16 years old, you need to be accompanied by a responsible adult.

Q: What if English isn't my first language? Is it only Americans on the trips?

A: Our TPR Trips always have been very diverse, with participants from Asia, Europe, South America, Australia, and of course North America. Our trips are conducted in English, but we do our best to make sure that if English is not your first language you understand what we are saying and feel welcome. On many trips our Europeans will outnumber the Americans!

Terms and Conditions

Your trip fee covers the cost of the following: all transportation detailed in the trip flyer, overnight accommodations, park entrances, all relevant taxes, road tolls, gas, parking, drivers, etc. It does not include any meals apart from those advertised in the itinerary. Theme Park Review will do its best to arrange park perks, but they cannot be guaranteed.

Participants aged 15 and under as of March 26, 2011 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Participants aged 16 – 17 will be allowed to travel on their own but must have a signed medical release and waiver from their parent or guardian as well as be personally approved by Theme Park Review.

Note that the pace of the trip will be fairly rigorous, mornings as early as 6am, nights as late as midnight. This will NOT be the case EVERY day, but do be prepared. Most hotels will have full service restaurants.

Due to fluctuating fuel prices as well as currency exchange rates, it may become necessary to charge a small fuel/currency supplement if needed. This will be determined six weeks prior to the start of the trip.

Theme Park Review cannot be held responsible for anyone that misses the start of the trip due to flight delays or any other travel issues. Everyone should plan to arrive in ample time for the start of the tour. Trip participants are also responsible for arriving on time to all scheduled bus departures. The trip WILL depart on time and will not wait for latecomers. If you are late for any meet up, you will be responsible to meet up with the tour at your cost. Ask anyone from previous TPR Trips, if you are 1 minute late WE WILL ALREADY BE GONE! This is how we can make every attempt to stay on schedule. We strongly recommend that you take out your own insurance policy to cover health, third party liability and trip cancellation costs.

The payment of registration fees by, for, or on behalf of participants releases and holds harmless Theme Park Review and its representatives from any and all liabilities related to those activities.

We reserve the right to alter the itinerary for reasons such as operational problems, acts of war, etc. We will try to notify you prior to departure where possible or by announcements during the trip. We will try to offer suitable alternatives where possible. We cannot be held responsible if certain rides or coasters are not open for the trip. If you wish to cancel your place on the trip, then we must receive notice at least 4 weeks prior to departure. Any trip costs incurred on your behalf will be retained up to the value of the deposit. If cancellation notification is received less than 4 weeks prior to departure, any trip costs incurred on your behalf may be retained from your trip payment, and you may be asked to reimburse us if costs incurred exceed what you have paid. Theme Park Review reserves the right to cancel the trip for any reason. In the event of a cancellation any monies paid to Theme Park Review will be refunded.
