FAQ's

Q: What can I expect from a Theme Park Review Trip?

A: Expect to have a great time with new and old friends, riding tons of great roller coasters, visiting some amazing parks, and even getting some nice perks like ERT, backstage tours, etc. It also means "concierge" type service from help with all of your travel arrangements, luggage tags, drinks/snacks, private message board to discuss details, and much more!

Q: How do we meet up at the start of the Trip?

A: This will all be discussed further once signups are complete. Most likely for these trips you will be responsible for getting to the first hotel (a centrally located Tokyo hotel). Again, all details will be given on the private trip board and the printed color trip guide. We will also let everyone know our flight plans and you are welcome to fly over with us.

Q: What kind of hotels will we stay at?

A: Theme Park Review makes the best attempt to stay at "nice" hotels. Meaning interior corridors, hotels with facilities (food, convenience stores, etc.) within walking distance, hotels with a bar or restaurant, etc. On these trips we will base in a few large cities then take trains out to various parks. This base camp approach has worked well for past TPR Trips and allows you time every night to explore the amazing Japanese culture.

Q: What are "park perks?"

A: The most popular park perk is "ERT/ERS" or "Exclusive Ride Time/Session." The park will allow our group to arrive early or extend our stay outside of the public park hours so we can ride coasters all by ourselves! We may also get backstage tours or photo tours in areas not accessible by the general public. This will not be as prevalent on these trips as on other trips due to the Japanese culture but we will do our best to get you some cool perks!

Q: How many people will be on this trip?

A: Theme Park Review likes to keep our trips as small as possible. There may be as few as 30 people on a tour, and NEVER more than 100. We have seen what happens when a tour books 250 – 300 people. Lines are longer during ERT than during the normal operating day! We do not want that to happen on a TPR tour. These trips will be limited to around 40 people.

Q: What kind of meals can I expect?

A: We will always try to stay at hotels that include breakfast. On most days (except for when we have to leave super early) breakfast will be included. Due to our busy days and visiting multiple parks we will not have set meals at parks, but instead have some group meals at an offsite restaurant.

Q: Do I need to be a member of Theme Park Review to go on a trip?

A: No. You do not need to be a member to go on a trip, however, once you register, we will create a TPR Forum screen name for you, if you do not have one already. You will have access to the trip forum which will give you up-to-date information.

Q: I am under 18 years old. Can I still go on a trip?

A: If you are 16 or 17, you can still go on the trip, BUT your parents must agree to sign a medical release form and a waiver and you must be "approved" by TPR. If you are under 16 years old, you need to be accompanied by a responsible adult.

Q: What if English isn't my first language? Is it only Americans on the trips?

A: Our TPR Trips always have been very diverse, with participants from Asia, Europe, South America, Australia, and of course North America. Our trips are conducted in English, but we do our best to make sure that if English is not your first language you understand what we are saying and feel welcome. On many trips our Europeans will outnumber the Americans!

We will try to offer suitable alternatives where possible. We cannot be held responsible if certain rides or coasters are not open for the trip. If you wish to cancel your place on the trip, then we must receive notice at least 4 weeks prior to departure. Any trip costs incurred on your behalf will be retained up to the value of the deposit. If cancellation notification is received less than 4 weeks prior to departure, any trip costs incurred on your behalf may be retained from your trip payment, and you may be asked to reimburse us if costs incurred exceed what you have paid. Theme Park Review reserves the right to cancel the trip for any reason. In the event of a cancellation any monies paid to Theme Park Review will be refunded.
