FAQ's

Q: What can I expect from a Theme Park Review tour?

A: Expect to have a great time with new and old friends, riding tons of great roller coasters, visiting some amazing parks, and even getting some nice perks like ERT, backstage tours, etc. It also means 'concierge' type service from help with all of your travel arrangements, luggage tags, drinks/snacks, private message board to discuss details, and much more!

Q: How do we meet up at the start of the tour?

A: You will be responsible for getting to a hotel very close to the Copenhagen Airport, arriving on Sunday June 7. On the final day of the tour, Monday June 22, a bus will take you from the final hotel to the airport. Or if you choose, you can take an airport shuttle or taxi, you may extend your stay, tour Helsinki, visit more parks, etc. Due to flight delays and cancellations, if it works with your schedule we highly recommend arriving into Copenhagen a day early (Saturday June 6) just to play it safe. We can help you arrange for hotel and transportation that day.

Q: What kind of hotels will we stay at?

A: Theme Park Review makes the best attempt to stay at "nice" hotels. Meaning interior corridors, hotels with facilities (food, convenience stores, etc) within walking distance, hotels with a bar or restaurant, etc. If possible, we try to book hotels close to parks to limit the amount of driving in the morning. Scandinavia is very expensive and some nights we may stay at just average tourist hotels to make up for staying other nights at fabulous hotels walking distance to parks!

Q: What are "park perks?"

A: The most popular park perk is "ERT/ERS" or "Exclusive Ride Time/Session." The park will allow our group to arrive early or extend our stay outside of the public park hours so we can ride coasters all by ourselves! We may also get backstage tours or photo tours in areas not accessible by the general public.

Q: How many people will be on this trip?

A: Theme Park Review likes to keep our trips as small as possible. There may be as few as 30 people on a tour, and NEVER more than 100. This tour will be limited to 50 participants. We have seen what happens when a tour books 250 – 300 people. Lines are longer during ERT than during the normal operating day! We do not want that to happen on a TPR tour.

Q: What kind of meals can I expect?

A: We will always try to stay at hotels that include breakfast. On most days (if not all) breakfast will be included. On as many days as possible, we will try to include a meal at a park. That meal may either be a set time for the entire group or you may receive a meal coupon to eat on your own.

Q: Do I need to be a member of Theme Park Review to go on a trip?

A: No. You do not need to be a member to go on a trip, however, it is recommended to join (it's free!) once you sign up for a trip as you will have access to the trip forum which will give you up to date information.

Q: I am under 18 years old. Can I still go on a trip?

A: If you are 16 or 17, you can still go on the trip, BUT your parents must agree to sign a medical release form and a waiver and you must be "approved" by TPR. If you are under 16 years old, you need to be accompanied by a responsible adult.

Q: How do I fly into Copenhagen and out of Helsinki? Will this cost me more?

A: GOOD QUESTION! This kind of trip is often referred to as a 'dog leg' journey, most of the time it is not much more money than flying round trip. If you find an amazing roundtrip ticket to Copenhagen or Helsinki, consider buying a one way ticket between the two and that may make it even cheaper! For example, airfare from Los Angeles to Copenhagen and Helsinki back to Los Angeles is currently $1150. New York to Copenhagen and Helsinki back to New York is currently $750. These are very good prices!

Terms and Conditions

Your trip fee covers the cost of the following: all transportation detailed in the trip flyer, overnight accommodations, park entrances, all relevant taxes, road tolls, gas, parking, drivers, ferries, etc. It does not include any meals apart from those advertised in the itinerary. Theme Park Review will do its best to arrange park perks, but they cannot be guaranteed. Keep in mind that some 'New for 2009' Coasters may not be open in time for the tour, or may have technical difficulties.

Participants aged 15 and under as of June 7, 2009 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Participants aged 16 – 17 will be allowed to travel on their own but must have a signed medical release and waiver from their parent or guardian as well as be personally approved by Theme Park Review.

Note that the pace of the trip will be fairly rigorous, mornings as early as 6am, nights as late as midnight. This will NOT be the case EVERY day, but do be prepared. Most hotels will have full service restaurants. Coach is a standard bus with Toilet and Air Conditioning. Please note that air conditioning in European hotels is not as common as it is in the US. We will make every attempt to stay at hotels with air conditioning, but this might not be an amenity offered at every hotel.

Due to fluctuating fuel prices along with changing exchange rates, it may become necessary to charge a small fuel/exchange rate supplement if needed. This will be determined six weeks prior to the start of the trip.

Theme Park Review cannot be held responsible for anyone that misses the start of the trip due to flight delays or any other travel issues. Everyone should plan to arrive in ample time for the start of the tour. Trip participants are also responsible for arriving on time to all scheduled bus departures. The bus WILL depart on time and will not wait for latecomers. If you are late for the bus, you will be responsible to meet up with the tour at your cost. Ask anyone from previous TPR Trips, if you are 1 minute late THE BUS WILL LEAVE! This is how we can make every attempt to stay on schedule. We strongly recommend that you take out your own insurance policy to cover health, third party liability and trip cancellation costs.

The payment of registration fees by, for, or on behalf of participants releases and holds harmless Theme Park Review and its representatives from any and all liabilities related to those activities.

We reserve the right to alter the itinerary for reasons such as operational problems, acts of war, etc. We will try to notify you prior to departure where possible or by announcements during the trip. We will try to offer suitable alternatives where possible. We cannot be held responsible if certain rides or coasters are not open for the trip. If you wish to cancel your place on the trip, then we must receive notice at least 4 weeks prior to departure. Any trip costs incurred on your behalf will be retained up to the value of the deposit. If cancellation notification is received less than 4 weeks prior to departure, any trip costs incurred on your behalf may be retained from your trip payment, and you may be asked to reimburse us if costs incurred exceed what you have paid. Theme Park Review reserves the right to cancel the trip for any reason. In the event of a cancellation any monies paid to Theme Park Review will be refunded.

You must be in possession of a full passport that is not due to expire for at least six months after your return to your country of residence. We cannot be held responsible for any problems arising due to insufficient travel documentation.
