FAQ's

Q: What can I expect from a Theme Park Review Trip?

A: Expect to have a great time with new and old friends, riding tons of great roller coasters, visiting some amazing parks, and even getting some nice perks like ERT, backstage tours, etc. It also means 'concierge' type service from help with all of your travel arrangements, luggage tags, drinks/snacks, private message board to discuss details, and much more!

Q: How do we meet up at the start of the Trip?

A: There will be a meeting spot at the Los Angeles (LAX) airport the morning of Thursday, August 6. You will be responsible for getting to that meeting spot on your own by a set time to be determined once signups are complete. We will then drive up to the San Francisco Area to allow for a pick up there as well. There will also be a meeting spot at the San Francisco Airport (SFO) the evening of Thursday, August 6. The final option is that our hotel has a shuttle to and from the San Jose Airport (SJC) that you can use to meet up with us there at any time on Thursday. On the final day of the tour, Monday, August 17, a bus or hotel shuttle will take you from the final hotel to LAX airport. Or if you choose, you may extend your stay, tour Los Angeles, visit more parks, or continue with us to Las Vegas. This will all be discussed further once signups are complete.

Q: What kind of hotels will we stay at?

A: Theme Park Review makes the best attempt to stay at "nice" hotels. Meaning interior corridors, hotels with facilities (food, convenience stores, etc) within walking distance, hotels with a bar or restaurant, etc. If possible, we try to book hotels close to parks to limit the amount of driving in the morning.

Q: What are "park perks?"

A: The most popular park perk is "ERT/ERS" or "Exclusive Ride Time/Session." The park will allow our group to arrive early or extend our stay outside of the public park hours so we can ride coasters all by ourselves! We may also get backstage tours or photo tours in areas not accessible by the general public.

Q: How many people will be on this trip?

A: Theme Park Review likes to keep our trips as small as possible. There may be as few as 30 people on a tour, and NEVER more than 100. We have seen what happens when a tour books 250 – 300 people. Lines are longer during ERT than during the normal operating day! We do not want that to happen on a TPR tour.

Q: What kind of meals can I expect?

A: We will always try to stay at hotels that include breakfast. On most days (if not all) breakfast will be included. On as many days as possible, we will try to include a meal at a park. That meal may either be a set time for the entire group or you may receive a meal coupon to eat on your own.

Q: Do I need to be a member of Theme Park Review to go on a trip?

A: No. You do not need to be a member to go on a trip, however, it is recommended to join (it's free!) once you sign up for a trip as you will have access to the trip forum which will give you up to date information.

Q: I am under 18 years old. Can I still go on a trip?

A: If you are 16 or 17, you can still go on the trip, BUT your parents must agree to sign a medical release form and a waiver and you must be "approved" by TPR. If you are under 16 years old, you need to be accompanied by a responsible adult.

Q: Why are there three different airports to fly into? Which one should I fly into?

A: GOOD QUESTION! The 'SoCal' and 'NorCal' areas are about 6 hours apart. Some people hate long drives, some people can get cheap one way airfares, some people want the cheapest airfare possible so we're trying to accommodate all of you! For example, you can fly into SFO and out of LAX, which will save you one long drive, but may be more expensive than flying roundtrip LAX. Also, those of you who like to use Southwest Airlines can fly into SJC which has a lot of flights available then out of LAX for basically the same price as a normal roundtrip ticket. We are happy to help you find good flights that fit your schedule, budget, and needs!

Terms and Conditions

Your trip fee covers the cost of the following: all transportation detailed in the trip flyer, overnight accommodations, park entrances, all relevant taxes, road tolls, gas, parking, drivers, etc. It does not include any meals apart from those advertised in the itinerary. Theme Park Review will do its best to arrange park perks, but they cannot be guaranteed.

Participants aged 15 and under as of August 6, 2009 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Participants aged 16 – 17 will be allowed to travel on their own but must have a signed medical release and waiver from their parent or guardian as well as be personally approved by Theme Park Review.

Note that the pace of the trip will be fairly rigorous, mornings as early as 6am, nights as late as midnight. This will NOT be the case EVERY day, but do be prepared. Many hotels will have full service restaurants. Coach is a standard bus with Toilet and Air Conditioning.

Due to fluctuating fuel prices, it may become necessary to charge a small fuel supplement if needed. This will be determined six weeks prior to the start of the trip.

Theme Park Review cannot be held responsible for anyone that misses the start of the trip due to flight delays or any other travel issues. Everyone should plan to arrive in ample time for the start of the tour. Trip participants are also responsible for arriving on time to all scheduled bus departures. The bus WILL depart on time and will not wait for latecomers. If you are late for the bus, you will be responsible to meet up with the tour at your cost. Ask anyone from previous TPR Trips, if you are 1 minute late THE BUS WILL LEAVE! This is how we can make every attempt to stay on schedule. We strongly recommend that you take out your own insurance policy to cover health, third party liability and trip cancellation costs.

The payment of registration fees by, for, or on behalf of participants releases and holds harmless Theme Park Review and its representatives from any and all liabilities related to those activities.

We reserve the right to alter the itinerary for reasons such as operational problems, acts of war, etc. We will try to notify you prior to departure where possible or by announcements during the trip. We will try to offer suitable alternatives where possible. We cannot be held responsible if certain rides or coasters are not open for the trip. If you wish to cancel your place on the trip, then we must receive notice at least 4 weeks prior to departure. Any trip costs incurred on your behalf will be retained up to the value of the deposit. If cancellation notification is received less than 4 weeks prior to departure, any trip costs incurred on your behalf may be retained from your trip payment, and you may be asked to reimburse us if costs incurred exceed what you have paid. Theme Park Review reserves the right to cancel the trip for any reason. In the event of a cancellation any monies paid to Theme Park Review will be refunded.

International participants must be in possession of a full passport that is not due to expire for at least six months after your return to your country of residence. We cannot be held responsible for any problems arising due to insufficient travel documentation. Theme Park Review cannot be deemed liable in respect of any loss, damage, or changes caused by force majeure. This covers such events as floods, strikes, fire, warfare, terrorism, or similar actions beyond our control.

Theme Park Review acts only as an agent for the various independent suppliers that provide hotel accommodations, transportation, sightseeing, amusement parks, or other services connected with this tour. Such services are subject to the terms and conditions of those suppliers. Theme Park Review accepts no liability whatsoever for any injury, damage, loss, accident, delay, or other incident which may be caused by the negligence, defect, default or any company or person in performing these services. Responsibility is not accepted for losses, injury, damages or expenses of any kind due to sickness, weather, strikes, hostilities, wars, terrorist acts, acts of nature, local laws or other such causes. All services and accommodations are subject to the laws and regulations of the country in which they are provided. Theme Park Review is not responsible for any baggage or personal effects of any individual participating in the tour. Individual Travelers are responsible for purchasing a travel insurance policy, if desired, that will cover some of the expenses associated with the loss of luggage or personal effects.
