FAQ's

Q: What can I expect from a Theme Park Review Trip?

A: Expect to have a great time with new and old friends, riding tons of great roller coasters, visiting some amazing parks, and even getting some nice perks like ERT, backstage tours, etc. It also means "concierge" type service from help with all of your travel arrangements, luggage tags, drinks/snacks, private message board to discuss details, and much more!

Q: How do we meet up at the start of the Trip?

A: This will all be discussed further once signups are complete. Usually, you just get to the airport and we take care of it from there. Again, all details will be given on the private trip board and the printed color trip guide. We will also let everyone know our flight plans and you are welcome to fly over with us. No one has ever not found us to start the tour!

Q: What kind of hotels will we stay at?

A: On these trips we will stay only at hotels rated four or five stars! They will have safe water, English speaking staff, Western style food available, additional restaurants, bars, and more. Hotel chains will include Westin, Sofitel, Marriott, Shangrila, etc.

Q: What are "park perks?"

A: The most popular park perk is "ERT/ERS" or "Exclusive Ride Time/Session." The park will allow our group to arrive early or extend our stay outside of the public park hours so we can ride coasters all by ourselves! We may also get backstage tours or photo tours in areas not accessible by the general public. On a trip like this we will most likely end up with 'filming sessions', when we will get to a park before opening to film on the coasters using all of you as our extras!

Q: How many people will be on this trip?

A: Theme Park Review likes to keep our trips as small as possible. There may be as few as 25 people on a tour, and NEVER more than 100. On this trip we are aiming to keep it around 30 people per segment.

Q: What kind of meals can I expect?

A: We will stay at hotels that include hot big buffet breakfasts. On most days (except for when we have to leave super early) breakfast will be included. We will then have another meal at a restaurant outside of a park or hotel. Most of these meals will be Chinese food, but we will also have Western style food from time to time. Don't be afraid if you're a picky eater, there are tons of Western Fast Food all around China!

Q: Do I need to be a member of Theme Park Review or Club TPR to go on a trip?

A: No. You do not need to be a member to go on a trip, however, once you register, we will create a TPR Forum screen name for you, if you do not have one already. You will have access to the trip forum which will give you up-to-date information. Club TPR Members get priority placement on trips and a discount. Join today at www.clubtpr.com

Q: I am under 18 years old. Can I still go on a trip?

A: If you are 16 or 17, you can still go on the trip, BUT your parents must agree to sign a medical release form and a waiver and you must be "approved" by TPR. If you are under 16 years old, you need to be accompanied by a responsible adult.

Q: What if English isn't my first language? Is it only Americans on the trips?

A: Our TPR Trips always have been very diverse, with participants from Asia, Europe, South America, Australia, and of course North America. Our trips are conducted in English, but we do our best to make sure that if English is not your first language you understand what we are saying and feel welcome. On many trips our Europeans will outnumber the Americans!

Q: Why is Hong Kong an Add On?

A: Hong Kong is the most expensive area of China and we wanted to keep the two main segments under $3k each. We highly recommend adding on Hong Kong if you can as we'll hit up Ocean Park and Hong Kong Disneyland (during their Halloween event as well!). The Hong Kong Disneyland Hotel we'll stay at is amazing and the add on will also include some sightseeing and amazing meals!
